OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM

No. GAD 64 SSR 74, BANGALORE, DATED THE 23RD NOVEMBER 1974.

It has been brought to the notice of Government that in spite of the instructions issued in the Circular No. GAD 34 SRR 69, dated 31st July 1969 there has been undue delay on the part of the appointing authorities in making appointments of candidates selected by the Public Service Commission/Recruitment Committees. The Circular instructions provide that normally appointment orders should be issued within a period of three months from the date of communication of the list of selected candidates to the appointing authorities. The period of three months is a sufficiently long period to enable the appointing authorities to consider the suitability of the candidates selected in accordance with rule 10 of the General Recruitment Rules and there should normally, be no occasions where a longer period is required.

All the Secretaries to Government and other appointing authorities are requested to ensure that the time limit mentioned above is strictly adhered to in such cases. Government would be constrained to take a serious view if there is undue delay in making appointments of candidates selected by the Public Service Commission or the Recruitment Committees unless there are adequate reasons justifying the delay.

G. V. K. RAO,
Chief Secretary to Government.

ORDER NO. GAD 41 SSR 74, BANGALORE, DATED THE 19TH NOVEMBER 1974.

According to the Government Order dated 18th April 1964 as amended by the subsequent orders referred to above, Departmental Promotional Committees have been constituted for assessing the merit and suitability of candidates for the purposes of promotion by selection to various posts, except the posts of Secretaries to Government and Heads of Departments. The posts of Heads of Departments are also generally required to be filled by promotion by selection from the officers in the lower cadre in the department or by appointment of other officers. Government are therefore, pleased to constitute a Departmental Promotion Committee of the following officers for assessing the merit and suitability of candidates for appointment to the posts of Heads of Departments which are to be filled either by promotion by selection or otherwise:—

(1) Chief Secretary to Government.

(2 Secretary to Government of the administrative department concerned.

(3) Any other Secretary to Government to be nominated by the Chief Secretary.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Karnataka,
SYED KARIMULLAH KHADRI,
Under Secretary to Government,
General Administration Department,
